SENIOR DIGITAL DESIGNER

About

With a foundation in UX, I'm obsessed with delivering meaningful, strategy-driven designs that stand out in the digital space.

I specialize in all things digital production—responsive front-end web design and development, static and dynamic display ad creatives, email marketing, interactive prototyping, branding and print design.

I have over 10 years of agency experience and currently am a full-time Senior Digital Designer at marriner marketing in Columbia, MD.
